PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

“Don't breathe to survive; dance and feel alive.”
Shah Asad Rizvi

Greetings to all our Folkdance friends, wherever you may be, as we breathe life into another year of International Folk Dancing for 2020. I hope you, like my wife and I, have had a restful holiday break with family and friends, and are now, eagerly looking forward to re-energising connections through dancing during the coming year.

It is encouraging to learn of new folk-dance opportunities starting up, in both Western Australia and Australian Capital Territory. Check them out in our 'What's On Where' section of this edition.

Of particular note for your diaries is our Annual General Meeting, which will be held at 10am on Sunday, 9th February at the Redfern Town Hall followed by a Turkish Dance Workshop lead by Gokden Kilic at 11am. Look for the details of this event on this page. I encourage every member to think about representing your group on this day.

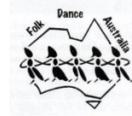

Spoiler Alert! This year we have planned two visiting overseas guest teacher tours. Watch for future notifications in our Footnotes

Have you a significant dance event or international folk-dance person you would like us all to know a little better? Then take your opportunity to put pen to paper and submit such an article before 15th March for the second Footnotes edition of 2020.

Enjoy your dancing, one breath at a time...

Paul

Sadly, this summer has almost brought our land to its knees. We are still reeling from the effects of the bush fires, erupting volcanoes causing misery to those on a NZ holiday and indescribable loss of lives and beautiful wild life.

Black leaves and ash have landed in my yard and of course, we have had our days of smoke. This is of minor concern considering the devastating damage to lives and homes. How do you pick yourself up after this catastrophe?

Finally, the rain gave some relief, but not enough to break the drought.

I do hope our folk dancing community has been spared the trauma of these last few months. We shall recover from this in time. In the meantime, let's lift our spirits, pick up your shoes and keep on dancing.

PERTH INTERNATIONAL DANCE
NEWS
(News/Updates from PID)
perthinternationaldance.org.au

Since the last edition of footnotes, lots of activities have been happening in Western Australia. A new committee was elected in November with several members on the committee for the first time. December brought holiday cheer with parties occurring in the Monday, Friday Hills group and Saturday morning sessions. The Monday night party had our local band “The Last Five Coins” playing many of our well-known dance tunes in addition to some of our favorite recorded songs. All enjoyed a potluck supper. These activities provided a great beginning to the holiday season.

Monday night Christmas party 2020 with the Last Five Coins Musicians

January brought around a lot of hot weather and the annual Introduction to International Dance course and the Children’s Dance Course. Another Introduction course beginning in February is being offered for the first time in Midland. (See flyer). A radio interview on “Folking Around”, the local folk music program also occurred. Along with all of these activities the organization for the Marius Ursu workshop in March is in progress with wide spread promotional activities and workshop planning. More on these in future Footnotes articles.

Children’s dance class

We have also introduced a fee reduction for 3 months of $5 per weekly class. Our latest Grapevine is available with news about PID as well as an additional travelogue by our members who have been out and about around the world. Please see our website. If you are traveling to Western Australia, come and join in the fun. We would love to meet you. We have our dance shoes on and are looking forward to 2020.

PID Promotional Committee

Sedenka Folk Dance Group

invites you to learn dances from the Balkans and elsewhere with

Lyn Beard

on Saturday 16th May 2020, 10.00am to 3.30pm

Redfern Town Hall, 73 Pitt St. Redfern.

Cost $25, FDA members $20.

Lyn joined Sedenka in the early 1970s, dancing in both the recreational and performance group until leaving Sydney in the early 1990s. On moving to Brisbane Lyn founded Brisinta International Folk-Dance Group and continues as its principal teacher.

An excellent dancer with an interest in the style of different dance cultures, Lyn presents a wonderful enthusiasm and energy in her dancing which is hard to resist. Her extensive teaching experience is evident in how easy, and how much fun, she makes the learning experience.

FRENCH DANCES

For those who may be interested in a short history of French dances the website 'France dance 101' is worth checking out. Following is a brief account of some of the traditional dances.

France has several beautiful and diverse traditional dances, which are distinctive to their own region and whose history often goes back hundreds of years. Although most people nowadays don't practice these dances anymore, there has been a recent rise in traditional French dance academies and troops. These dances lost much of their popularity after World War II as everything traditional was associated with the Nazi-sympathizing Vichy government. The youth of this time rejected it, and looked for more modern cultural alternatives. Luckily, this is changing and the beauty of these dances is being maintained for future generations.

The Gavotte

This dance is categorized as a Breton dance, as it originates in the region of Brittany. The dance is performed either in lines or circles, and features pairs who switch between each other. The rhythm of the dance has changed throughout history, as different styles of music influenced it. It reached its popularity peak in the court of the Sun King, who appreciated it greatly.

The Tourdion

A lively dance with a fast beat, and joyful rhythm. It is singled-out by its coordinated hop on one foot, and slight kick with the other. Although there are variations of the Tourdion, it usually always follows the same steps, so that it has been kept fairly original. The dance became most popular in the 1400s and 1500s, so that the traditional dresses used to dance it are mostly Medieval in fashion.

The Bal-musette

A more modern dance, the Bal-musette became popular in the streets of 19th century Paris and can still be heard being played by street performers everywhere in the city. Accompanied with an accordion, this music was usually played in bars and cafes, and often in lower-class neighbourhoods. As different styles arrived, mixes and variations started to occur, making the music more interesting and varied. The dance that accompanies this music is easier, and less choreographed and coordinated than those of previous centuries. Its popularity reached its peak after World War II, as it was the alternative to more traditional dances that were being rejected.

OVERSEAS WORKSHOPS/EVENTS

LAGUNA FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL – 50 YEARS YOUNG!

This festival will be held March 6-8, 2020 and will be our 50th anniversary, so it will be a doozy! Legendary YVES MOREAU (who taught at our 25th Festival and will be teaching mostly Bulgarian dances, as usual) is already confirmed as one of the main teachers, as is young and energetic AARON ALPERT who will be teaching Israeli dances.

There will also be cameo appearances by famous former festival teachers TOM BOZIGIAN and LEE OTTERHOLT. And the National Folk Organization (NFO) will be holding its annual conference in conjunction with the festival, so many dance leaders from all over the United States will be there.

Registration is open now on www.lagunainternationaldancers.com. Make sure to register early because space is limited!
