PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Welcome to FDA's third issue of Footnotes for 2021. Time has surely danced along, bringing seasonal changes for all members around the globe. I hope you have all enjoyed celebrating International Dance Day recently, at the end of April.

Currently, some groups have begun dancing closer together with or without joining hands, in accordance with the prevailing COVID restrictions. It is also encouraging to continue enjoying connection with teachers and dancers overseas as a result of internet technologies.

Having had two successful FDA Zoom workshops in March and May this year, we look forward to the next couple by Ira Weisburd in June, and Gergana Panova in August. Check Dates For Your Diary for the next dates and times, and register for these upcoming events.

Remember also, that funding is available to help groups in the hire of a hall/venue and equipment for these workshops. Please apply if this can help your group attend the workshop together.

Until next issue, keep on dancing, one step at a time.

Fiona

COME AND TRY DAY at BOWRAL

YAY ! It's International Dance day. Lots of people will want to be part of that! Notices handed out; information given to two local radio stations; article for the local paper; notice on Facebook community page; current members encouraged to "bring a friend"; morning tea prepared; membership forms for FDA available. Members from the recently formed "beginner class" invited to step up to the earlier class of "intermediate" dancers to experience being part of a bigger group. Excitement in the air! Will we have enough room to move?

What does it take to get newcomers?... the eternal question.

Well, we didn't get any new ones but we did have a great roll up from the 12 beginners, several who enjoyed coming for the earlier class and who lasted 2 hours instead of one. The extra vigour and enthusiasm meant there may be a spin off down the track once word gets out from this morning's experience. The idea of being able to join in Zoom workshops if becoming an FDA member, appealed to a couple of recent recruits to class.

The "Come and try days" supported by FDA is a good initiative.

Coordinator Southern Highlands International Folk Dance Group.*

VIRTUAL WORKSHOPS

Coming up in the next few weeks are two virtual workshops. They will be delivered by Zoom - check this out in the following pages.

YouTube never ceases to amaze me. Whenever I wish to investigate a new dance, I just Google the name and nine times out of ten it pops up on YouTube. Not only are there different groups under instruction, but also there is often a teacher demonstrating the dance step by step. It doesn't matter what language is spoken, all you need to do is listen to the music and follow the steps.

I can wander anywhere in the world joining in with those who have been so generous to spend the time recording these dances. I find it really enjoyable.

There are also links on the Folk Dance Australia website where you can find music and notes for particular dances. Just love this virtual world.

Log into these workshops, I am sure you will find this worthwhile.

Editor*

FDA VIRTUAL WORKSHOP PARTICIPATION

Aim

To grow FDA's membership and provide benefits to current members

Funding assistance is available for those groups who would like to organise a venue where FDA members can gather for a scheduled FDA Virtual Workshop.

Maximum support is $500.

Please provide the following information for the FDA committee's approval

Group name: .....

Anticipated attendance .....

Name and Cost of venue:.....

Cost of equipment (screen etc):.....

Total Cost:.....

Nominated FDA virtual workshop: .....

Contact details (Name, email):

Please encourage members of your dance group to join FDA. Join now and take advantage of free future workshops! The low cost of $25 helps FDA pay the workshop leaders a reasonable fee and enables offers of financial assistance to groups within Australia.

Please send emails to the FDA Secretary, Chris Wild at wildchris111@gmail.com

INTRODUCING Ira Weisburd

Ira has been choreographing Folk and Line dances for more than 30 years. His dances are enjoyed all over the world by groups of all ages and he enjoys a YouTube following of several thousand.

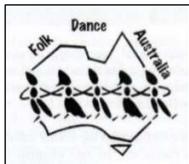

The Corona Virus didn't stop him dancing and teaching. He rearranged his home to accommodate teaching in front of a camera, and has recently extended an outside patio so he and his wife Diane, can dance in a larger space.

His weekly Balkan, Israeli and Line dance classes are all free of charge on YouTube, but he does ask for donations to help keep him going – 20% being given to Doctors without Borders, the Jewish Family Services, and the Line Dance Foundation. All the dance sessions, plus tutorials of new dances are available for everyone to view on YouTube.

He has choreographed and co-choreographed hundreds of dances, with many danced regularly around the world.

After a very successful and popular workshop for FDA last year, Ira is presenting another for us – again with a selection of Balkan and Israeli dances. Please join us!

TEENAGE CLASS AT CANBERRA

Folk dance has a quality that I have never seen in other forms of dance, a warmth about it that is unrivalled. It's in the togetherness of the group when they are dancing: the shared smiles, big laughs, and the physical connection of holding hands in a circle or clinging on for dear life as you buzz yourself dizzy. It's the pure joy of moving with beautiful music and moving with beautiful people. We have been so lucky to experience this togetherness and this joy through Folk Dance Canberra. And we want to share it.

In Australia, folk dance is never associated with teenagers. It can be seen as too slow or boring and many people just do not know about it. But folk dance can be so much fun! Israeli dances with graceful turns and leaps, Bulgarian dances with footwork so fast that it leaves you exhilarated and breathless, South American dances with sass and sway, and rhythmic Pacific Islander dances where you feel strong and powerful. Folk dance has been a part of how we have grown up - we have gained so much from it and it's still giving us so much! And the great thing about how dance is taught here at FDC is that there is no pressure at all, the classes are purely for the joy of dance. I know many teenagers who have done ballet, and said that they hated it. I am sure they love dancing, but the pressure is awful and it ruined whatever joy they felt. Folk dance is not like that.

This is why we wanted to teach our own class specifically for teenagers, and it's been really rewarding. Although most of our classes have been very small, there has always been a lightness and energy in the room that leaves your heart soaring a little afterwards. We have done a variety of dances, from Israel, the Pacific Islands, South America, Bulgaria, Romania, the USA, Germany, England, India and more! We generally do dances that are energetic and fun, and we've been keeping the dances simple. One person who came to the classes told us that they had never realised how awesome international folk dance was, and how there were so many rich stories behind the dances and they were so timeless as well. We also were lucky enough to have someone join our class who is Colombian and has done Colombian dancing before. We were teaching a Colombian dance the day that she first came, and it was the most exciting thing to hear that she was from Colombia and to watch her do the dance so beautifully in the Colombian style. We have learned from her, and it's so great that our class gave her a chance to do a dance from Colombia.

We are so glad that we started up our teenage world dance classes. It has been rewarding to share something that has been a big part of our lives and given us so much joy, with other people. Hopefully, some day many Australian teenagers will experience the joy of folk dancing.

INTRODUCING - Gergana Panova

Dr. Gergana Panova-Tekath was born in Sofia, Bulgaria. She graduated from the National School for Dance Arts in Sofia and was selected by Margarita Dikova for the Filip Kutev Bulgarian National Folk Ensemble, where she danced and choreographed until 1994.

Gergana has published numerous articles and has written two books on various aspects of Bulgarian traditional dance. Besides organizing annual summer seminars in Bulgaria (till 2011), Gergana has taught workshops in many countries: Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, Israel, Turkey, Norway, Denmark, Netherlands, Belgium, Brazil, Argentina, Japan, Canada, and the United States.

She regularly commutes between Bulgaria, where she heads the Ethnochoreology Department at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences, and Germany, where she is Professor of Dance at Folkwang University in Essen.

She graduated in Dance Pedagogy, Ethnochoreology, Choreography and Direction (Bulgaria), and Kinetography and Communicative Sciences (Germany) and has completed a Doctorate with "Summa cum laude" and awarded the prize "Dissertation 2004" from the Technical University of Dortmund (Germany) in the area of Cultural Philosophy. The title of her thesis is "Dance after Perestroika. The Communication between Eastern and Western Europe through the Bulgarian Folkdances." Gergana qualified in Ethnochoreology and Communication in 2011 in Sofia.

BULGARIAN ZOOM WORKSHOP with GERGANA PANOVA

Sunday 8th August 2021, 3pm – 5pm, (AEST)

Please register by Friday 6th August

Gergana graduated in ethnography, dance pedagogy and choreography in Bulgaria as well as Laban notation, communication sciences and philosophy in Germany. She received her D.Sc on intercultural non-verbal communication between Eastern and Western Europe and has published many articles and two books.

As a young person, Gergana danced as a soloist with the National Ensemble of Bulgaria, 'Philip Koutev'. She then devoted herself to folk dance research as a professor at the Bulgarian Academy of Science. Today she teaches at the Folkwang University in Essen, Germany and has given over 300 workshops in Bulgarian dances on four continents.
